

Pay No Mind

Alter Bridge

A lost soul
A willing hand
A scapegoat
The sacrificial lamb

It's so cold
A one way scam
That takes hold
So devious the plan

But time
It will unravel and expose
Us for the fools we are

We pay no mind
We pay no mind at all
We must be blind
When will this ever stop?

When the last man falls
Who'll be the first to rise and call you out?
Who'll be the first to draw the line?

Indifference
Our lasting curse
Resilience
Your blessing in disguise

The millions
You stand to hurt
Still willing
To stand right by your side

But time
It will unravel and expose
Us for the fools we are

We pay no mind
We pay no mind at all
We must be blind
When will this ever stop?

When the last man falls
Who'll be the first to rise and call you out?
Who'll be the first to draw the line?

You're so entitled since the day that you were born
Still we hear you screaming give me more, give me more
So entitled since the day that you were born
Still we hear you screaming give me more, give me more

So emboldened since the day that we were torn
You got away with murder, I won't let you anymore

We pay no mind
We pay no mind at all

We pay no mind
We pay no mind at all
We must be blind
When will this ever stop?

When the last man falls
Who'll be the first to rise and call you out?
Who'll be the first to draw the line and walk
And make you pay the cost of what you are?
But in the end we'll pay no mind
