

Someone Else's Eyes

Amanda Lear

I see your eyes in someone else's eyes
And I beg you to come to me tonight
You know that I don't love if you don't love back
Do you care for me, do you care for me

Is he so beautiful or is it just a lie
Is it just something to make me suffer so
I can't phone you again, I can't call you again
If you don't really want me, if you don't really care for me

I will find you in someone else's eyes
I will kiss you with someone else's lips
I will touch you someone else's hands
But I won't find you in someone else

I will find you in someone else's eyes
I will kiss you with someone else's lips
I will touch you someone else's hands
But I won't find you in someone else

Time runs so fast
Things changed a lot for me
Got a new one
Ain't got a new feeling
I've been waiting for someone
Will my dreams then come true?
Do you care for me, do you remember me?

I'd need a whole life
To make you understand
My words for you could be just grains of sand
I could repeat those words forever and more
Promising you a new romance
Just give me another chance

I will find you in someone else's eyes
I will kiss you with someone else's lips
I will touch you someone else's hands
But I won't find you in someone else

I will find you in someone else's eyes
I will kiss you with someone else's lips
I will touch you someone else's hands
But I won't find you in someone else
