

I Miss America

Amanda Somerville

I think I rather be in New York City
Where at least the cabbies notice you
(Even if it's only half the time)
I think I rather be in California
Where no one notices anyone
(It's OK since it's the norm)

But I miss America..

I think I'd rather be in Delhi, India
Maybe I'd look good in a saari
(And the people seem so nice)

I think I'd be Australia
I'd just wear lots of sun-creen
(No ozone? Hey, at least it's peaceful, but..)

I miss America
(I watch the news and think it's missing me)
I miss America
(I only get what's "As seen on TV")
I miss America
I miss America..

I think I'd rather be in Pensacola
Even in the Florida hurricanes
(You're safe with the Presbyterians there)
I think I'd rather be in Ponca City
"Oklahoma is OK!"
(Besides, I know someone from there)

I think I'd rather be in Venice, Italy
They're cleaning the canals there
(Even though they're sinking in the lagoon)

I think I'd rather be in South Africa
Maybe join the Green Peace
(And meet Nelson Mandela, but..)

I miss America
(I watch the news and think it's missing me)
I miss America
(I only get what's "As seen on TV")
I miss America
I miss America..

I look around and I watch the sun go down
Over Wolfsburg
And still I can't find one good thing
About Wolfsburg..

I miss... America
I miss America...
(I think I'd rather be in NYC)
I miss America...
(I think I'd rather be in CA)
I miss America..

(Or, FL, even Flint, MI, Paula,s Bethlehem..)
I miss America
(Anywhere but here)
I miss America...
I miss America...
I miss America...
