Rough Cut

Amber Rubarth

Suddenly you re shaken with pain
Shooting down inside you
And now you re crumbling away
But this isnut like you
It doesnut stop util it breaks down all you know
Your breathing locks and your balance goes

Ladadadadadada
It takes a minute
Ladadadadadada
It doesnOt finish
Ladadadadadadad
YouOre breaking faster
Ladadadadada
YouOre nothing after
ThereOs nothing after

You try to make your escape
But the blows keep on coming
And as the dust clears away
You start to notice something
Each time a piece crashes down into the floor
You Tre a little lighter than just before

Ladadadadadada It takes a minute
Ladadadadadadada
It doesnOt finish
Ladadadadadadad
YouOll see it after
Ladadadadada
When you look backwards
When you look backwards

And now your eyes shift from negative spaces
To contours that light up this rough cut design
And now you see it, you re sculpture in motion
You re unfinished art that keeps going, it keeps going
It keeps going and going and going..
