

You, my friend
Remind me of someone that I used to know
You've got his eyes, you've got his shadow
When did you become the kind of man to dance at funerals?

Are you lost?

Does it feel like you gave it all away?
Does it feel like it was barely yesterday?
Do the promises you make feel harder to keep?
Are you losing any sleep? Are you losing any sleep?

You, my friend
Remind of someone that I used to know
You've got his scars, you wear the same clothes
When did you become the kind of man to live in dark roads?

Are you lost?

Does it feel like you gave it all away?
Does it feel like it was barely yesterday?
Do the promises you make feel harder to keep?
Are you losing any sleep? Are you losing any sleep?

Are you lost?
Are you lost?
Are you lost?

Are you lost?
Are you lost?
Are you lost?

Are you lost?
Are you lost?
Are you lost?

Are you lost?
Are you lost?

Does it feel like you gave it all away?
Does it feel like it was barely yesterday?
Do the promises you make feel harder to keep?
Are you losing any sleep? Are you losing any sleep?
