

The Darkness Has a Voice

Amber Run

The darkness has a voice tonight
It seeps in from the summer sky
It fills me up and it sounds so sweet
A lullaby that's haunting me

And I'm waiting for a lifeline
Perhaps I'll be here a lifetime
Oh it's grown through the years
Starting ringing in my ears
Saying just know
Wherever you go
I will follow...

And the darkness has a voice tonight
So beautiful but so unkind
I'm floating in the boiling ink
I'm terrified of how I think

And I'm waiting for a lifeline
Perhaps I'll be here a lifetime
Oh it's grown through the years
Starting ringing in my ears
Saying just know
Wherever you go
I will follow...

The darkness has a voice tonight
The darkness has a voice tonight
The darkness has a voice tonight
The darkness has a voice tonight
