

Katherine Belle

American Aquarium

She comes bustin' through like a hurricane at midnight
She comes bustin' through like she bought the place
She was just a wolf in thrift-store clothin'
'Til that sheepish smile ran over her face
She stood up and said "Which one of you boys
"Which one of you boys is buyin' my drink?"
She started cussin' like a back row Baptist
I started wond'rin' what my mama would think about

Katherine Belle
I hope you're doin' well
Please don't break my heart
Please don't break my heart

Well we started drinkin' those whiskey and gingers
We drank so much, boy, we almost drowned
The jukebox was singing like a choir on Sunday
I did the Boss, she did a mean James Brown
All of her friends, yeah, they tried to warn me
They said that horse is too wild to tame
So I took a shot and I worked out the courage
To say "Baby girl let's start with your name"
She said, "I'm..."

"Katherine Belle
"I hope you're doing well
"Please don't break my heart
"Please don't break my heart"

She woke up on the wrong side of her bed
I woke up on the wrong side of town
She went to work and I went to Georgia
I wonder if she'll be there the next time around

Katherine Belle, I hope you're doing well
Please don't break my heart
Please don't break my heart

Katherine Belle, I hope you're doing well
Please don't break my heart
Please don't break my heart
