

Summer Rain

Ana Popovic

Summer dresses in the rain Cold drops warm skin Revealing curves
Unexpected

Hasty cover make your move it's time to stretch
the afternoon

Smiling faces
share the thrill Set your mind on another refill

A glance before it starts to pour plates on the move
table sheets on the dance floor

It's a free ride to nowhere on a nonstop train baby tell me can you stand the strain like there was no tomorrow and nothing's in your way I say let the time
let the time sustain

Sweet sweet summer rain

harmless flirt wish you could stay total strangers safely sheltered away

breeze turns into the wind rain grows cold
on the naked skin

it's a free ride to nowhere on a nonstop train
baby tell me can you stand the strain
like there was no tomorrow
and nothing's in your way
I say let the time
let the time sustain

Sweet sweet summer rain

You forget about your sorrow You forget about your pain You forget about tomorrow in that summer rain
