

Who Thinks Of The Executioner

Anaal Nathrakh

The blood is on our hands

Burn... burn... burn...

And we must bear the scars

Suicides... the whole human race... we kill for the... and we will be slaughtered and die [2x]

Die.

Burn, Burn

The blood is on our hands

The societies grasping consciousness

Until we go to our deaths

Who thinks of the executioner of death? we stand guilty on everyone's behalf

On behalf of the human race, guilty before god AND WE WILL BE..

Slaughtered by the executioner

Lonely souls who conspire to

Who thinks of the executioner

Not the sick and...

Not the sick and...

And we must bear excuses too, we're going down

Blood and water humanity's big fallacy of heartlessness...

By this evil and sin we stand before god and he must judge us A

ND WE WILL BE

Slaughtered and die

Slaughtered and die [4x]
