

One Day In Your Life

Anastacia

I know
C#
that's just it goes F#m- E
and you ain't right
D D/E
for sure
C#
you turned your back on love
F#m - E
for the last time
D E
it won't take much longer now
D E
time makes me stronger, way
D E
there's nothing more to say
D
One day in your life
E
said love would remind you C# F#m
how could you leave it all behind
D
one day in your life
E
it's gonna find you
C# F#m
with the tears that left me cry
D E
and baby I'm stronger then before
C# F#m
you gotta play it on the line
D E
maybe one day in your life

D E
My love
C#
did you think I'd break down F#m
and cry
D E
this thing we had C#
it mean the world to me
F#m
guess I would right
D E
it won't take much longer now
D E
see time makes me stronger way
D~ E
and I know you'll be coming round some day

D

One day in your life
                                  E
said love would remind you
                          C#                          F#m
how could you leave it all behind, yeah
                          D
one day in your life
                          E
it's gonna find you
                          C#                          F#m
with the tears that left me cry
                          D                          E
and baby I'm stronger then before
                          C#                          F#m
you gotta play it on the line
                          D                          E
maybe one day in your life

D                          A                          E
You called me in the midnight hour
                          Bm
with your ... lights
                          D                          A                          E
so many sleepless nights, I wonder
                          D                          E
is it time to say goodbye?

D
One day in your life
                                  E
said love would remind you
                          C#                          F#m
how could you leave it all behind, yeah
                          D
one day in your life
                          E
it's gonna find you
                          C#                          F#m
with the tears that left me cry
                          D                          E
and baby I'm stronger then before
                          C#                          F#m
you gotta play it on the line
                          D                          E
maybe one day in your life

ooooooooooooone day

D
One day in your life
                                  E
said love would remind you
                          C#                          F#m
how could you leave it all behind, yeah
                          D
one day in your life
                          E
it's gonna find you
                          C#                          F#m
with the tears that left me cry
                          D                          E
and baby I'm stronger then before
                          C#                          F#m

you gotta play it on the line

D

E

maybe one day in your life
