Anathema

And I felt myself going. I was in a great deal of pain, it was a very frightening experience, but I began to slip...

I just sort of, feel myself going, and I remember trying to hol d on... I'll be ok...

And it got to the point where I just couldn't... And everything b egan to just become very quiet.

And I can remember with every ounce of strength I had I wanted to say goodbye to my wife, it was important to me...

And I did, I remember just turning my head, looking at her and saying... I'm gonna die, goodbye Joan... and I did.

It was then that I experienced... experienced what we call a near death experience, for me there was nothing near about it, it w as there.

It was a total immersion in light, brightness, warmth, peace, s ecurity...

I did not have an out-of-body experience, I did not see my body or anyone about me, I just immediately went into this beautifu l bright light.

It's difficult to describe, matter of fact it's impossible to d escribe.

Verbally it cannot be expressed, it's something which becomes y ou and you become it...

I could say that I was peace, I was love, I was the brightness... It was part of me...

Goodbye my friend Love will never end

And I feel like you And I breathe all truth

Love is the lifebreath of all I see Love is the truelight inside of me

And I know you somehow As I hold you in my heart

In my heart

There's a fire in the sky

And I know it's you

(Senses following me)

There's a light that's so bright And I know it's you

And I dream like you And I believe in truth

For I was always there And I will always be there...

And it's just so beautiful. It was eternity. It's like… I was a lways there, and I will always be there…

That my existence on earth was just a very brief instant.

I could say that I was peace, I was love, I was the brightness…

It was part of me...
