

My beloved precious children
I have gathered you today for a change is coming to pass and it's gonna be ok

I've been searching for the answer I lost faith along the way but I always had the Aureum to remind me not to sway

I prepared you for the road ahead
and I taught you how to seek the truth
let the crystal lead your every move
I've been doing it so long, now it's your turn

I received it from my father in its bow of opaline I see how your spirit shine bright now the Aureum's yours Eirene

My dear son please don't be angry win your battle from within in your heart there's light and darkness and you're standing in between

I prepared you for the road ahead
and I taught you how to seek the truth
let the crystal lead your every move
I've been doing it so long, now it's your turn

Now, my flesh and blood,
I consign the world to your hands this is the White Stars's design, this is our duty divine this sacred mission is the meaning of our lives

La viltà domina, la vanità semina l'oscurità germina, la sacertà punirà

L'empietà domina, la vanità semina l'oscurità germina, la notte vincerà

Now, my flesh and blood,
I consign the world to your hands
this is the White Stars's design
this is our duty divine
this sacred mission is the meaning of our lives

Now, my flesh and blood,
I consign the world to your hands
this is the White Stars's design
this sacred mission is the meaning of our lives
