

Screaming In Silence

Andragonia

I feel so strange
why do I speak and no one seems to hear me?
It feels like I'm so far away from you
I'm bound in this cage of skin
Living this loneliness

Silence comes to hug me

I've felt I'm lost in the cold waiting for someone
I can't scream for a helping hand
Cause my voice's faded away

It's hurts so bad when everyone seems not to understand all the things you have to say
It's like I'm screaming in silence

My thoughts command but my body breaks my will giving me no chance to express my feelings and all the things I've got inside my mind
I must find a way to break this cage

I just wanna know!
Am I comfortable?
When my thoughts are unable to go outside

I've felt I'm lost in the cold waiting for someone
I can't scream for a helping hand
Cause my voice's faded away
The door that leads me to my world is closing in
And no one hears when I'm screaming in silence!

I just wanna know!
Am I comfortable?
When my thoughts are unable to go outside

Solo: Leitão

I've felt I'm lost in the cold waiting for someone
I can't scream for a helping hand
Cause my voice's faded away
The door that leads me to my world is closing in
And no one hears when I'm screaming in silence!
