

My Poor Heart

Andrew Belle

I don't like this spot
Let's talk like we're friends
We're just connecting dots
Through a kaleidoscoping lens

Oh love did I scare you
When I said close ain't close enough
You said our love fell on a spectrum somewhere but
We don't belong
I think you're wrong

My poor heart
You've stolen it from the start
You've stolen it from the start, I know
This won't be a missed opportunity
A missed opportunity, it won't

Oh, my lonely heart
You've stolen it from the start
Oh, my lonely heart
You've stolen it from the...

Seasons we forgot
Like money that we're spending
You're talking when you're not
With language you're inventing

Wait that came out wrong
Like a note returned to sender
If we forget will we remember
To take our time cause
Our enemy is brevity

My poor heart
You've stolen it from the start
You've stolen it from the start, I know
This won't be a missed opportunity
A missed opportunity, it won't
You've stolen it from the start

Oh, my lonely heart
You've stolen it from the start
Oh, my lonely heart
You've stolen it from the...

Sometimes you get distant
And I forget we swore forever
You said I don't need more just better
Oh there's a you shaped hole in my heart, in my heart
You stole it from the start

My lonely heart
You've stolen it from the start
Oh, my lonely heart
You've stolen it from the start
(My poor heart, you've stolen it from the start)
Oh, my lonely heart

You've stolen it from the start
