

You're the Sea

Andrew Belle

Each time we leave I think about it
What if we don't come back
If all of this is chasing the wind
Why is my head like that

Am I to believe
Am I to admit
That you're the sea
I'm raging with

Hey what's it like to be new in this town
Is my place next to yours
Will you forgive all my standing around
Will you be keeping scores

Am I to believe
Am I to admit
That you're the sea
I'm raging with

Am I to believe
Am I to admit
That you're the sea
I'm raging with

But in times like these
I tend to forget
A bad seed like me
You're patient with
