

Love Hurts

Andrew Gold

Here I am at your door
Hoping you'd come back once more
And here I am
And your love has died
It's one thing I wish you could hide

Love hurts
When you know that it's gone
Love hurts
When you still love someone
Love hurts
And there's nothing you can do
But cry all the tears left inside you

I've heard it said that time brings relief
But, babe, just how long will that take?
And here I am
I feel like a fool
You're causing this fool's heart to break

Love hurts
When you know that it's gone
Love hurts
When you still love someone
Love hurts
And there's nothing you can do
But cry all the tears left inside you

How can I see you like seeing a friend?
Each time I see you, I'll break down again

Love hurts
And there's nothing to do
But cry all the tears left inside you

Love hurts
And there's nothing to do
But cry all the tears left inside you
