Temple Grandin

Andrew Jackson Jihad

Open up your murder eyes and see the ugly world that spat you out
Open up your ugly mouth and sing the words, it's how you spit 'em out

In the days before the damage no one knew if we were happy
In the days before the damage dying wasn't nearly even easy now
So open up your murder eyes and see the ugly world that spat you out

Stevie Wonder did the bullshit
Stevie Wonder did the bullshit, baby
Write a nice pop song about it

Cut the world in half I bet that you will go and find a sleeping giant
Turn the page just to wake him up and then turn the page and then turn the page to kill him

In the days before the damage boredom was the same as waiting
In the days before the damage water was the only form of raining
In the days before the damage human beings were the ones who did the chasing

Open up your murder eyes and see the ugly world that spat you out

Hellen Keller did the bullshit
Hellen Keller did the bullshit
to break through your isolation

Temple Grandin did the bullshit
Temple Grandin did the bullshit baby

Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it

Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it

Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it
Find a nicer way to kill it
