

A Tumbleweed

Andrzej Zaucha

On the road with no end high on dream time, Chasing rainbows that offer a ride.
Maybe it's you there waiting,
I wish I knew just where you are.
It's been long since the time
when you left me,
I have followed the road to get by.
Road full of strangers' faces
That offer only stock replies.
I need you baby (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
I need you baby - hmmm (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
In search of cues in the wind.
Road seems the world's before me
Though I find nothing but what I see A bunch of strangers who search for
The stuff that could make memories.
Drifting along high on dream time,
Chasing rainbows that offer a ride.
Maybe it's you there waiting,
I wish I knew just where you are.
I need you baby (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
I need you baby (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
I need you baby - hmmm (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Cause without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
I need you I need you baby (baby)
You are the hope of my life
Oh
Without you
I feel so lonely
A tumbleweed
In search of cues in the wind.
