

Changer

Andy Shauf

If you didn't notice it then,
You won't remember it now,
But I met you with some friends,
There was lightning in the sky.

I tried to make a joke
About angels and a disco.
I got tongue tied
And you all got fed up.

Change on, changer.
Change on, changer.

I heard you're back in town
Working at the drugstore.
Did you get the city blues?
Oh, that I can relate to.

Oh, I can see it now,
Me telling you how
I found my way back home,
Oh, I'm already bored.

Change on, changer.
Change on, changer.
Change on, changer.
Change on, changer.
