Abandoned Fate

Silent talks In a cold room, lost Thoughts are gone I'm alone Wonder why Why the faults were mine Should I promise this? Day by day I need you Hold you Can't my eyes just tell? Claim for pain Was it all in vain? New sad days to come Many smiles we've done Mourning face In an abandoned fate My mind is blind But I still believe The truth in shadows Lies at me Don't take my freedom Is all I've got Can't force my reason For lovers knot I'm lonely and lost Don't mistreat me Don't dismiss me In joy and sorrow Find a meaning Keep on dreaming It is so hard to learn Here I stand In a castle of sand Who can help me then?
