Rainy clouds covered up the sunny sky Now I know I'll sleep alone tonight Tears and prayers will be taken by the rain Fear and loneliness in my dreams And I know I'll never be the same Living this tragedy insane All I wanna be is to be free with you, with me I don't blame the fate but it's still hard to face the truth It was all just like paradise Just like wewanted it to be Far beyond the reason rest our lives Eternity denies the guilty of reality senselessness Fly high reaching skies Two eagles flying to be free Moments of madness will be left behind The same horizon but in different lands
