

Secret Garden

Angra

The moonlit sky
The pale light unveils the secret path
Gates covered in roses
High in silent plaze

I hear you breathe
Sighs in the wind are leading me
Into paradise
I, come for you, I will forever return

Angels will call our names
They take us into the garden of dreams
And then your eyes meet mine
The light they shine will never die

Sing with me
The lullaby that sets me free
All my fears fade
In your sweet embrace

Talk to me
Make all my sorrows disappear
In my dark hours
I come to you, I will forever return

Angels will call our names
They take us into the garden of dreams
And then your eyes meet mine
The light they shine will never die

Come, meet me tonight, come to our secret garden
Hide, with me hide in your arms, hold me forever
Come, meet me tonight, come to our secret garden
Hide, with me hide by your side, hold me forever, here in your arms

Angels will call our names
They'll take us into the garden of dreams
And then your eyes meet mine
The light they shine will never die
