

Silent Call

Angra

I find myself lost in the swedish night
Sunset it's crying in the sky
Suddenly I see a new horizon
And I began to wonder why?

New day, sunrise
Sound the trumpets of the dawn
Far away, for a while
I hear the angels Silent Call
OOh, the Silent Call

All the answers to this dubious mysteries
In the magic midnight sun
I got an old bag full of recent memories
Many laughs and many cries

New day, sunrise
Sound the trumpets of the dawn
Far away, for a while
I hear the angels Silent Call
OOh, the Silent Call

Spread my wings and fly
Only guided by faith
Through the darkness or light
May have the "whys? "
It's always the same
It's always there
Night and Day
The Silent Call
