Life used to be life-like

Now it's more like showbiz

I wake up in the night

And I don't know where the bathroom is

And I don't know what town I'm in

Or what sky I am under

And I wake up in the darkness and I

Don't have the will anymore to wonder

Everyone has a skeleton

And a closet to keep it in

And your mine

Every song has a you

A you that the singer sings to

And you're it this time

Baby, you're it this time

When I need to wipe my face I use the back of my hand And I like to take up space Just because I can And I use my dress To wipe up my drink I care less and less What people think And you are so lame You always dissapoint me It's kind of like our running joke But it's really not funny And I just want you to live up to The image of you I create I see you and I'm so unsatisfied I see you and I dilate

So I'll walk the plank
And I'll jump with a smile
If I'm gonna go down
I'm gonna do it with style
And you won't see me surrender
You won't hear me confess
'Cuz you've left me with nothing
But I've worked with less
And I learn every room long enough
To make it to the door
And then I hear it click shut behind me
And every key works differently
I forget everytime
And forgetting defines me
That's what defines me

When I say you sucked my brain out
The English translation is I am in love with you
And it is no fun
But I don't use words like love
'Cuz works like that don't matter
But don't look so offended
You know, you should be flattered
And I wake up in the night

In some big hotel bed
And my hands grope for the light
And my hands grope for my head
The world is my oyster
The road is my home
And I know that I'm better
Off alone
