Hungry Feast Of Love

Anita Lipnicka

This is the slowest dance In the Universe One step, two steps Between - an endless wait I try to walk upon The broken line of time Stars spin around me As I sway from side to side

I'm holding on To a flake of hope I've been treated to On this hungry feast of love

This is the darkest night Beneath the deepest sea I'm searching me body again For your fingerprints Are you the book I read? Are you the book I write? My head is on fire I'd better learn you by heart

I'm holding on To a flake of hope I've been treated to On this hungry feast of love

Having lost My way back home I keep hanging on In this hungry feast of love...
