

Benjamin

Anita Meyer

Benjamin oh no
Benjamin don't go

You've asked for love
I gave you more
I gave you anything a woman could give
And now we're through
All said and done
Still there's no one
Real comparing with you

Should I love you
Should I hate you
While every beat of my heart
Reminds me of you

Benjamin don't you give up trying
Benjamin oh no
With only love
You no will survive on
Benjamin don't go

What can I say
What must I do
If in my dreams
I only see you
And now we're through
All said and done
Still there's no one
Real comparing with you

Should I need you
Should I want you
Cause every beat of my heart
Reminds me of you

Benjamin don't you give up trying
Benjamin oh no
With only love
You no will survive on
Benjamin don't go

Tell me now we're on our own
Seems to me it's hard to ignore
Oh how was I to know
How was I to know

Benjamin don't you give up trying
Benjamin oh no
With only love
You no will survive on
Benjamin don't go
(2x)
