

2nd Chance

Anna Abreu

I listened to your answer phone (just to hear your voice)
Reminded me why you are gone (had no other choice)

Dont need no tears to cry
This ocean has run dry
If I could hit rewind and unwaste my time

I guess I was a fool, you messed me up real bad (up real bad)
Im sorry I dont care if you are feeling sad (feeling sad)

I wont give you one more second chance
Give you one more second chance
One two three four no second dance
Give you one more second chance

Hey boy I somehow knew that we
Would be lives apart
Theres no one else to blame but you
No room in my heart

Youve made your last mistake
And baby youre too late
You better listen to me when I say

I guess I was a fool, you messed me up real bad (up real bad)
Im sorry I dont care if you are feeling sad (feeling sad)

I wont give you one more second chance
Give you one more second chance
One two three four no second dance
Give you one more second chance

So you want a second chance?
Youre barely hanging on?
You want a second chance?
Im better off on my own

(2x):

I wont give you one more second chance
Give you one more second chance
One two three four no second dance
Give you one more second chance
