

THIS GIRL

Anna Abreu

Can't hold the line? Retreat, u depress me
You're in too deep, you'll fry, what if we Call it a day and just fall back to where we were You'd better learn how to fly before you jump in
But if you're up to this,
Enough to walk the walk
Dig in, don't reminisce
Go ahead and do, don't wish
No I don't expect too much
But i'ma sucker for games
So if u wanna play, then that's alright
Go crazy, plug away: I'm tough tonight
So if u wanna play with me, alright
Light up the fuse and shine, stir up, ignite
Boy if you're out of this world
Fight for this girl
Battle for surrender
You gotta fight for this girl
So insecure and weak, I won't lie
You're up to here against me, myself and I
Just raise your stakes or quit because I'm calling it now
Crash and burn, fly and learn, baby it's your call
U think you're up to this?

Dig in, don't reminisce
Go ahead and do, don't wish
No I don't expect too much
But i'ma sucker for games
So if u wanna play with me, alright
Light up the fuse and shine, stir up, ignite
Boy if you're out of this world
Fight for this girl
Battle for surrender
You gotta fight for this girl
U can build this up
And I can tear it down
I'm acting so bizarre
When you're around
Surrounded by a light
A supernatural flare
So if u wanna play with me, alright
Light up the fuse and shine, stir up, ignite
You're scared or getting high? Then quit the ride
I feel it burning up and love collide
Boy if you're out of this world
Fight for this girl
Battle for surrender
You gotta fight this girl
Boy if you're out of this world
Fight for this girl
Battle for surrender
You gotta fight for this girl
