

Lonely Life

Anna of the North

Should have changed your lovin' when you had it
Now the sea's gone out, the beach is dry
Could have years ago, but now it's tragic
Gotta appreciate it when you can, it's too late, it's too late
Is there no point in wasting your time?

Don't wanna go home, just wanna be alone tonight
Let me sit back, relax for a minute
Let it all wash to me to be in it
I'm fine, just drifting along tonight
Let me sit back, relax for a minute
Looking at life the way that we live it
It's a lonely life, it's your only life
It's a lonely life, the way that we live it
It's a lonely life, it's a lonely life
It's your only life, live it

Should have taken time before you blew it
And now the ship has sailed, the chance has gone
Could've been so crazy, just imagine
Gotta make it happen when you can, it's too late, it's too late
Baby, maybe next time

Don't wanna go home, just wanna be alone tonight
Let me sit back, relax for a minute
Let it all wash to me to be in it
I'm fine, just drifting along tonight
Let me sit back, relax for a minute
Looking at life the way that we live it
It's a lonely life, it's your only life
It's a lonely life, the way that we live it
It's a lonely life, it's a lonely life
It's your only life, live it

Hey, just look at the sky
The sky is forever and ever below you
So dry your eyes
Just look at the sky
The sky is forever and ever below you
Love takes time
Just look at the sky
The sky is forever and ever below you
So dry your eyes
Just look at the sky
The sky is forever and ever below you
Love takes time
Hey, just look at the sky
The sky is forever and ever below you

It's a lonely life, it's a lonely life
It's your only life, live it
