

Guilty

Anna Tsuchiya

There is the darkness
I drag my heavy dream
I can't erase it Believing you will come back to me

There is a delusion just between you and me
"You call it. Heads or tails?"
Nowhere to hide anymore

I'm in a maze of fears and sorrows
Save me from here
So somebody please Desire burns and out of control

I sacrifice my fate
to satisfy myself
Don't wanna lose your love
instead of guilty lies

The savage blood is shot
to satisfy my soul
And calling out your name
Because of you, I always feel insane

The sky is hopeless filled with its deepest cry
Why don't you feel it?
You make me so crazy, baby

The rain is falling to wash my sins away
"I swear to tell the truth"
But how can I go to heaven?

Standing alone with all my courage Holding my faith but Nobody knows
My heart is screaming, searching for love

I sacrifice my fate
to satisfy myself
You're killing all my heart
It's the way of guilty love

to satisfy my soul
But never reach again
All I can do is always feel my pain

I sacrifice my fate

And calling out your name

to satisfy my soul
But never reach again
