

Come to Me

Anne Murray

Come to me
When her lies have broken love down
Come to me
When your heart is no longer bound
Come to me and know
You'll never be lonely
If you'll only
Come to me

Take these dreams of mine
And make them come true
Take my word
No one could love you more than I do
Take my hand and know
You'll never be lonely
If you'll only
Come to me
Oh, come to me

Careless love is at best unfair
Heartache lies in wait for you there
Come to me
When the truth finally opens your eyes
When her touch can't make up for her lies
Come to me
Come to me

Come to me
When your tears have no place to fall
Come to me
When you're there with no reason at all
Come to me and know
You'll never be lonely
If you'll only
Come to me
Come to me
Come to me
Come to me
