

Saved by the Grace of Your Love

Anne Murray

Don't need no witness on the witness stand
Don't need no sister, make no gambling man
I got something beats a bird in the hand
It's your loving that brings me luck

Don't need no singer with no sad, sad song
Don't want to hear him get the words all wrong
I got the dream build my life upon
And let me tell you that's enough

I've been saved by the grace of your love
Hallelujah to our saviour above
I've been raised by the grace of your love
Oh, praise me to the power of love

I used to live so badly
The only life I knew
I gave a million excuses, yeah
The only way the lonely people do

One day I came to my senses
I knew what I was headed to
I made up my mind
Changed my habits in time
Yes, I owe that change to you

I've been saved by the grace of your love
Hallelujah to our saviour above
I've been raised by the grace of your love
Oh, praise me to the power of love

Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
No one could ever take your place

I've been saved by the grace of your love
Hallelujah to our saviour above
I've been raised by the grace of your love
Oh, praise me to the power of love

I've been saved by the grace of your love
Hallelujah to our saviour above
I've been raised by the grace of your love
Oh, praise me to the power of love
