

Time

Annisokay

At the heart of the ocean
They finally found the wreck
You know time can be forgiving
But time does not forget

At the heart of the ocean
A wreckage tells no lies
As the beast that you woke up
Wipes the sleep out of his eyes

Stop being the machine
Stop drifting with the ghosts
Stop chewing through your bullets
And spitting out the shells

Stop being the SOS
From a ghost inside the shell
And you forget your self
Like a silent sunken wreck

And now the sirens swim
Around and through your lifeless form
Stop being the marionette
Of someone else
And start being yourself

At the heart of the ocean
We're trying to find some truth
It is time that someone owned up
For the mess we're swimming through

At heart of the ocean
Where you're fears are all laid bare
Where time was all you needed
Like you never needed air

Stop being the machine
Stop drifting with the ghosts
Stop chewing through your bullets
And spitting out the shells

Stop being the SOS
From a ghost inside the shell
And you forget your self
Like a silent sunken wreck

At the heart of the ocean
We finally comprehend
Time can be unkind
But time's your only friend

So don't forget!
Don't forget!

If you wanna kill time
You better not forget
It has never been beaten
