

Leningrad

Anthemora

Too many bodies dead on the ground
There they remain forever and ever alone

The bombs exploding loud and louder on the ground
Evil is rising in this dawn
Shadows are dancing in the mist of the town
Secrets are hidden underground

Break the human rules

In Leningrad
And death will come
In Leningrad
And will be life
Leningrad

Rising the rage of a hidden 'n blazing hell
Kill your sons and kill your friends
Fight for freedom
Fighting to survive
Kill the invaders just for hunger's fear

Break the human rules

In Leningrad
And death will come
In Leningrad
And will be life
Leningrad
