

Skyline

Anthony David

She cry's, 'cause it's getting late and he still hasn't called
And that's the first sign of emotion that I've seen
A teenager in love

What a beautiful thing to me
'Cause she possesses love so innocent and pure
And it reminds me of what I once felt before
And we fell in love

And maybe we can recapture the feeling
We both been hurt but let's begin the healing
'Cause I still believe in fairytails and happily ever after

Baby look towards the skyline
I have made up my mind
We're taking it to the limit
And we'll love as if we've never felt a heartbreak
'Cause you're my first and favorite love

Time flies, and I guess destiny has brought us back around
And now we're wondering if love can still be found
The love we once knew

Well I'd like to give it a try
'Cause no one seems to notice where I'm coming from
No one gets to understand my history
But I think you do

And baby we can make a new beginning
It's been a while since someone sent me spinning
And I'm so glad you've made an entrance back into my life

Baby look towards the skyline
I have made up my mind
We're taking it to the limit
And we'll love as if we've never felt a heartbreak
'Cause you're my first and favorite love

Baby look towards the skyline
I have made up my mind
We're taking it to the limit
And we'll love as if we've never felt a heartbreak
'Cause you're my first and favorite love
