

Hypernosis

Anubis Gate

Hypernosis, learn to see
Life and death from fantasy
It's you your mind is reflecting now

Hypernosis, this is it
The colour doesn't seem to fit,
But it's you, oh you better believe it's you

Hypernosis, every dream
Is caught within your thoughtmachine
And it's cruel to see how confused you are

When hypernosis comes to end
There's no way you can still pretend
And live on like nothing is wrong

I can't stop, I can't stop this silence
Or tell past from presence
I'm lost in the hands of the future
Looking through my mirror

In my face a number of odd times,
Bad dreams and old crimes
Episodes from my mother's diary
Written on my body

Hypernosis...

Inside, inside the odious
Long lost and precious
Lies a deranged and repressed existence
Trapped from surfacing in silence

Now I'm here I'll force you to surface
Get up, get out and accept your guilt
What you've done can never be undone
But forgiveness you shall get from above
