

Walls

Anuheia

My heart was hurt, my soul was aching
Then your love, it found me waiting

In the night where we'll see
And now the world has spoken
And the [?] we keep
Evoke my true emotions
When I'm with you
My walls come down

I tried to keep my heart protected
I told my secrets to the sea, oh

I was drowning in the deep
And no longer need to suffer
I can breathe finally
I'm drifting into comfort
When I'm with you
All my walls come down
All my walls come down

I can love again
I'm finally free, oh

I was drowning in the deep
I no longer need to suffer
I am finally at ease
I can live a little longer
When I'm with you
All my walls come down
All my walls come down
