

Beg for Your Love

April Wine

You know I want your love so bad
I don't know how to show it
Before I tear myself apart
Let me suggest a place to start

I'll beg for your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll get down on my knees
You know I need your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll just say pretty please

I say I want your love so bad
I'll beg steal or borrow
Well talk is easy; 'cause talk is cheap
The price for your love's a little steep

I'll beg for your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll get down on my knees
You know I need your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll just say pretty please

You know I want your love so bad
That I can almost taste it
But gimme gimme never gets
And I ain't got what I want yet

I'll beg for your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll get down on my knees
You know I need your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll just say pretty please

I'll beg for your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll get down on my knees
You know I need your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll just say pretty please

I'll beg for your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll get down on my knees
You know I need your love
I'll beg for your love
I'll just say pretty please
