

You Opened up My Eyes

April Wine

I wake up early morning, I lay down with the sun
You make me feel my life has just begun
Tell me 'bout tomorrow, and I'll tell you where I stand
You hold a touch of magic in your hand
You made me feel, we were here, we were real
You opened up my eyes

A feeling, oh so warm now, burnin' in my heart
Keepin' me and chasin' out the dark
A long long road behind me, and a longer road ahead
Remembering the things we've done and said
You gave to me, everything that I could see
You opened up my eyes
You opened up, you opened up my eyes, ooh

Tell me 'bout tomorrow, and I'll tell you where I stand
You hold a touch of magic in your hand
You made me feel, we were here, we were real
You opened up my eyes
You opened up, you opened up my eyes
You opened up my eyes

All my life, all my life, all my life
Now I can say that I've seen the day (all my)
That it's worked out alright (life)
I feel so good that I don't think that (all my)
I'm gonna live through the night (life)
Now I can say that I've seen the day (all my)
That it's worked out alright (life)
I feel so good that I don't think that (all my)
I'm gonna live through the night (life)
