

Strange Fires

Ariel Pink

Who knocks at the door?
It's the window in my mind
You came runnin' back behind

The red of your face
Is just as red as my fingers
Because I came

Where do little girls go
When they run from home?

Love me! I tell it to my heartbreak!
Aunt Caroline is just another pretty face

Strange fires
Strange
[x3]

Strange fires of the mind
That devours all the time
And this time
I'm a killer inside

Strange fires of the mind
That devours all the time
And this time
I find

Caught with the crosses
We begun to sleep

Love me! Tell it to my heartbreak!
An evil sin worth crawling in my guilty hands

Strange fires
Strange
[x3]

Who knocks at the door?
It's the window in my mind
You came runnin' back behind

The red of your face
Is just as red as my fingers
Because I came

Where do little girls go
When they run from home?

Love me! Or tell it to my heartbreak!
Old Caroline is just another pretty face

Strange fires
Strange
[x3]

(Look to me

On the way home)
