

The Defiant Boundary

Ashent

I don't think to be your guide, so don't follow me.
What I sowed is just pure shade, Eve don't hesitate.

Could you reach the highest heights,
could you reach the sky?
Could you tell the reason why, we are still alive?

Feel your heartbeat close to mine,
I hear your breath in every place,
stay with me for a while.
It's a sort of mystery, it's a piece of destiny
as a tear drops in the water.

I, I'm the leader of my resurrection.
I, I'm the eternal slave of this passion.
The scent of snow calms the fall,
a fall called maturity, white lies paint my destiny.
A sense of drift trapped in the chill!

Ashes to ashes, reborn again.
All that remains, it's the dust on my hand.
It seems as the leaves on a tree falling down.
I'll pray everyday 'til you'll be mine again.

Feel your heartbeat close to mine,
I hear your breath in every place,
stay with me for a while.
It's a sort of mystery, it's a piece of destiny
as a tear drops in the water.

I, I'm the leader of my resurrection.
I, I'm the eternal slave of this passion.
The scent of snow calms the fall,
a fall called maturity, white lies paint my destiny.
A sense of drift trapped in the chill!

Ashes to ashes, reborn again.
All that remains, it's the dust on my hand.
