

Still Got Some

Asher Roth

Maybe it's the red wine talkin'
But lately I've been feelin' unwanted
Pretty much indifferent
But I still got some love to give
Some love to give, some love to give
But I still got some...

Love baby, tough to love lately
Trust among shady to bunk my feng shui
I'm up late, afraid, thinkin' bout gettin' paid
Thinkin' bout all the ways, the different thing I can say
It's strange, witness so many stages to the labyrinth
Madness if you have it, takes a couple days to salvage
What be left, caverns in my chest, sadness becomes the reg
The battle is in the flesh, it's tough being in wantin' and needin'
Of scenes, believin' that we in some deep [?]
I keep hearin' the heat scarin', the grease blarin', fear starin'
Us right in the face, it be right in your way
White and the beige, black and the gray
The fat, under weight, the happily gay, even the facts ain't straight
Ask us to hate, some of us casually straight, yeah
All I can say is

But I still got some love to give (To give, to give)
Some love to give, some love to give
But I still got some...

A little inspiration, goes a long way hombre
Helps to carry me through the off days
When it all says, stay in bed and pretend
In the end, it gets said the enemy is in your head
But if it's in our nature to be hateful, cling to our truth till face blue
Can't make room, for new thoughts, it's too soft grow no moss
And rock on, block all convo that's not yours
Strong opinions, no facts just feelings
Validation givin' for those slingin' for the millions
I can feel it, hope to better myself
I want to yell but can't help that I
(Still got some)
Slow motion, better than no motion
Better than no folks, you'll never grow old
Inevitable, sellin' bee, hella motive
But, even if your skeletons embedded in gold you know

Maybe it's the red wine talkin'
But lately I've been feelin' unwanted
Pretty much indifferent
But I still got some love to give
Some love to give, some love to give
But I still got some love to give (Still got some)
But I still got some love to give
Some love to give, some love to give
But I still got some love to give
