

Me Without You

Ashley Tisdale

It's just you and me
And there's no one around
Feel like I'm hanging by a thread
It's a long way down
I've been trying to breathe
But I'm fighting for air
I'm at an all time low
With no place to go
But you're always there

When everything falls apart
And it seems like the world
Is crashing at my feet
You like me the best
When I'm a mess
When I'm my own worst enemy
You make me feel beautiful (beautiful)
When I have nothing left to prove
And I can't imagine
How I'd make it through
There's no me without you
No me without you, no no

You hear what I say
When I don't say a word
You are my rising sun
You're the place I run
You know how it hurts

When everything falls apart
When everything falls apart
And it seems like the world
Is crashing at my feet
You like me the best
When I'm a mess
When I'm my own worst enemy
You make me feel beautiful (beautiful)
When I have nothing left to prove
And I can't imagine
How I'd make it through
There's no me without you
No me without you

There's no me without you
No me without you

And when you say 'baby, it's gonna get better'
I believe you
And I wish that somehow I could see me
The way you do
With my imperfections
You think I'm perfect
When it's not easy
You make it worth it

When everything falls apart

Is crashing at my feet
You like me the best
When I'm a mess
And I can't imagine
There's no me without you

No me without you (no me without you)
No me without you, no no (no me without you), no
