

Does She Know

Astrid S

On my way to your house, sneakers in the snow
I only wanna see her
And my thoughts are so loud, 'cause I just wanna know
Are you gonna keep her?

Only call you, faded
Sorry, I know you, hate it
Probably shouldn't say this
But it hurts to bite my tongue

Does she know that you held me in the dark
Does she know that I had you from the start
Does she know that the bruises never change
My marks are on your heart, I had you from the start

Holding water in my hands, but it never lasts
Slipping through my fingers
Think I held on too tight, cutting off the blood
You don't feel a thing till it hurts

Only call you faded
Sorry, I know you hate it
Probably shouldn't say this
But I'm done biting my tongue

Does she know that you held me in the dark
Does she know that I had you from the start
Does she know that the bruises never change
My marks are on your heart, I had you from the start
