

Hard to Cure

ATB

Drifting out in the dark
Where you stop I start
It's a long way back to the light
Tasted so bitter sweetly
Memories harbored deeply
In a dream there's a remedy
'cause you're hard to cure

I will see the light someday
Where there's a will
There's a way
It's a sweet surrender
Cause there's never a clean break
And I will give more than I'll take
Reverse the spell
Find a remedy
'cause you're hard to cure

You're so hard to
You're hard to
You're so hard to cure
You're so hard to
You're hard to
You're so hard to cure
Hard to cure

'cause you're hard to cure

Drifting out in the dark
Where you stop I start
It's a long way back to the light
Tasted so bitter sweetly
Memories harbored deeply
In a dream there's a remedy
'cause you're hard to cure

You're so hard to
You're hard to
You're so hard to cure
You're so hard to
You're hard to
You're so hard to cure...

'cause you're hard to cure

Drifting out in the dark
Where you stop I start
It's a long way back to the light
Tasted so bitter sweetly
Memories harbored deeply
'cause you're hard to cure
