

Some Things Just Are the Way They Are

ATB

Here is no contemplating it's all negotiating It makes no sense what we've become there are no words to explain it's all just bugs and aeroplanes we stretch but we can't even reach they talk about our present the past and almost everything before they never even tried but I can't find the answers to all the questions inside

but tonight it's all an ever lasting out of here
the kind that makes my story disappear tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know

I've tried to see it your way I've made up stupid stuff to say but you never really did reply there are tons of bricks between us but we still have to meet up and be the people that we are

the kind that makes my story disappear
tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know
