

What I Didn't Know

Athenaeum

I complain, though nothing's even wrong That's when I said I'll need, more than you can offer me

I miss your face, as you can tell Hope my absence makes you well and you're ashamed, 'cause you're not quite that strong [chorus]

Cause what I didn't know, is I was killing you I said a lot of things, that I didn't mean to but I am older now, and I am sorry too so I can wait awhile, if I brings me back to you I am shy, I never speak a word
And you are numb, from all the things you never heard That's when I said I'll need more than you can offer me
And now I own an empty space
And I can't fill it with your face [chorus]

Cause what I didn't know, is I was killing you I said a lot of things, that I didn't mean to
but I am older now, and I am sorry too
so I can wait awhile, if I brings me back to you
That's when I said I'll need, more than you can offer me
I miss your face, as you can tell
Hope my absence makes you well
[chorus]

Cause what I didn't know, is I was killing you I said a lot of things, that I didn't mean to
but I am older now, and I am sorry too
