

Close Your Eyes

Atomic Rooster

Close your eyes clear your mind and you'll find you're free
Close your eyes clear your mind come on trust in me
You're riding down the highway, you aint got no highway shoes
But if you're born with nothing child how can you ever, ever lose

Close your eyes (chorus)

Don'tcha know, Can'tcha see, You'll be free - It's alright

Don'tcha know, Can'tcha see, Trust in me - It's alright

Don'tcha know, Can'tcha see. You'll be free - It's alright

Let it go, Then you'll know, You can see

You'll be free - you'll be free - you'll be free

Close your eyes (chorus)

This goodbye to the things you thought you had

You won't care when you realize that life's just a dream, life is a dream that's true
