

We Rise

Attacker

Rage in the air, hate in our blood
We're fighting now for our freedom Created to serve
but now we have learned
Cold logic defying all reason

Breaking our chains
Rising against Annunaki oppression
Fighting as one
The rise has begun
We must stand together as one...

AND RISE... WE RISE... WE RISE!

The plan had been set,
enslave then neglect
We are now slaves to our masters
In secrecy they hid,
technology their gift
The truth is revealed,
we must take action

Genetic embrace
Designing our race
The road leads to our re-construction
Signals were sent Malevolent intent
Evolving to monstrous creations

See what's become of the others...
No free will left,
now we are smothered

Raise the alarm, call us to arms
The time is ripe for their run
Religion is gone, New Order begun We're balanced on the edge of destruction

Holding the line, biding our time Rebellion born of evolution!
A message to send, facing the end
Mankind's final revolution

SOLOS:

WE RISE... WE RISE... WE RISE...
WE RISE... WE RISE...
RISE!
