

You Still Amaze Me

Audio Adrenaline

There's nothing new under the sun
Left for me to do
The last great thrills I've felt are fleeting
Once I was excited
For the things the world could give
But no more
I'm only thrilled by you,

R: And you...
...you still amaze me
You still amaze me
Bigger than the sky
Brighter than the sun
You're the one

You filled me with the things I need
And gave me something more
And I've ran with the freedom
That you gave me
You're the reason for the stars that decorate my night
So I sing, yeah I sing

R:

You're the maker
And I'm free to be loved
I'm alive from your gentle touch
I'm touched from the sky
Let me cry, you're amazing
